Ground the room with this statement-making buffet or home office credenza, impeccably crafted in a mix of wood and metal. At the center of attention: a stylized door pull inspired by the Dara knot, a Celtic symbol of strength that resembles the intricately woven roots of an ancient Oak tree. Its multifunctional design offers abundant storage with two drawers, adjustable shelves, cutouts for wire management, and a lower file drawer with removable dividers. Designed with intention, it brings form and function to dining, living, and home office interiors.
